PCEDC Committees

Workforce Committee

Dedicated to creating a qualified workforce in Pike County, this group focuses on the relationship between the Education sector and the Business Sector, as well as addressing Business Retention and Expansion within the county.

Small Business/Entrepreneurship Committee

Focusing on the heart and soul of what Pike County is, this group focuses on providing and creating resources and services to small business owners and entrepreneurs within the County, as well as prospective owners/entrepreneurs.

Community Needs/Municipal Issues Committee

Addressing community needs and dealing with municipal issues is a large part of what PCEDC stands for, and this committee focuses on ways to address ongoing issues in society, from dilapidated buildings to capitalizing on the resources and successes that we have had as a county.

Renewable Energy/Telecommunications Committee

Pike County is a shining example of how communities can capitalize on their natural resources, and this group focuses on expanding on the efforts of renewable energy and telecommunications as it affects our communities.

Promotions/Marketing/Membership Committee

Economic Development is an ever-changing system, growing and adapting as communities grow and prosper. This committee is focused on the marketing efforts of PCEDC and how to provide maximum benefits to the county, and more importantly, our members.
